

entering the main room because of students and faculty members and thus saved the VC from physical harm. However, few of the faculty and students were injured because of the stone throwing and broken glass panes. The chief proctor had to be admitted in the hospital because of the tension and blood pressure. The Vice Chancellor, Deans of Schools and other senior faculty were confined in the room for more than 6 hours till the police had come and rescued them. They sat in the lawn for several hours and raised slogans against the Vice Chancellor and other members of the university. The act of violence indulged by these students caused enormous damage to public property besides threatened the people inside VC lodge. As such, he requested appropriate action be taken on those who indulged in violence at VC's lodge and threatened the people with dire consequences.
